

BETH E. ELNESS-HANSON

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Biblical Studies Professor and Department Head, Trinity Lutheran College, Everett, WA
2008

Teaching Assistant, Fuller Theological Seminary—Northwest, 2007

Consultant for Congregational-based Mission Trips, 2006 to present

Adult Education Teacher and Retreat Speaker, 1985 to present

Teacher, MaaSae Girls' Lutheran Secondary School, Monduli, Tanzania, 2002 to 2004

Director of Communications, Trinity Lutheran College, Issaquah, WA, 1991 to 2001

Assistant Director of Admissions, Trinity Lutheran College, Issaquah, WA, 1988 to 1991

Program Director, Park River Bible Camp, Park River, ND, 1985 to 1988

PROFESSIONAL and COMMITTEE MEMEBERSHIPS

Society of Biblical Literature, 2007 to present

Northwest Washington Synod Communications Committee, Evangelical Lutheran
Church in America, 1995 to 2001

Region 1 Communications Committee, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, 1997 to 2001

PAPER PRESENTED

“Generational Curse as Part of Collective Responsibility in the Hebrew Bible: An Inter-cultural Hermeneutical Study” at the Hebrew Bible division of the Regional Society of Biblical Literature, Newberg, OR, May 2008

EDUCATION

Fuller Theological Seminary—Northwest, Seattle, WA, 2006

Program: Master of Arts in Theology, Biblical Studies Emphasis

Homer L. Goddard Community Service Award

University of Minnesota—Duluth, Bachelor of Arts, 1998

Major: Biology, Minor: Chemistry, Cum Laude

Trinity Lutheran College (Lutheran Bible Institute), Issaquah, WA, Bachelor of Arts, 1990

Major: Biblical Studies, Honor Student

Trinity Lutheran College (Lutheran Bible Institute), Issaquah, WA, Certificate, 1984

Program: Biblical Studies, Delta Epsilon Chi Honor Student